

VINOBRANI - HARVEST DANCE

including the Czech tradition of...

"STEALING THE FRUIT"

Please join our members for a night of family fun celebrating 100 years of Sokol Fort Worth and 115 years of SPJST!

Vinobrani originates from dances dating back to the 1300's, when King Charles IV and local farmers celebrated the successful harvesting of grapes and fruits.

Saturday, September 8, 2012

5:00pm – 8:00pm

Sokol Fort Worth/SPJST Lodge 154
6500 Boat Club Road, Fort Worth

$5.00

5 years and under
(FREE)

Music By:

"CZECH AND THEN SOME"
Polka, Western, and All Types of Fun Dances

'CZECH AND THEN SOME' is from Ennis, Texas. Earlier this year the band received the great honor to play in Washington DC at the Kennedy Center. They were selected by the Czech Embassy to play for two special performances including one called, The Music of Prague.

Food and Cash Bar Available:
Kobase sandwiches, saurkraut, hotdogs,
nachos, corn dogs and kolaches.

"CZECH AND THEN SOME"
Sponsored by Jerry and Henrietta Milan
In Honor of their 55th Anniversary
"carrying on the Czech traditions"

Also enjoy memorabilia displays: photos, movies, museum, etc.....

For more information contact Jerry Milan at (817)237-4237 or email jerrysokol@aol.com