Star Trek Starship Miniatures

FASA
CORPORATION

Discriminating Fleet Admirals everywhere prefer the FASA Star Trek Starship miniatures so much that the ships outsell all their competitors everywhere, and in 1985, they won the H. G. Wells Award for Best Vehicle Miniatures.

Cast in white metal, these miniatures are popular because of their fine detailing and easy assembly. With a little super-glue and about ten minutes' time, you can put together the finest starship on the market. Then, just use your favorite paints to create the famous vessels of Star Trek or your own designs or patterns. Each miniature also comes with a hex-shaped mounting stand designed to fit the maps of the Star Trek Starship Combat Game.

Throughout 1986, you'll be able to expand your fleets with new Starship Miniatures forthcoming from FASA. So, whether you are a Star Trek fan, a miniatures collector, and/or a gamer, accept only the best. Put FASA's Star Trek Starship Miniatures in your fleet today and start exploring strange new worlds.
