

The Lois N. Bartz Award for Outstanding Service to the Chatham Arch Neighborhood

The family of Lois N. Bartz her relatives and friends established a memorial fund with the Chatham Arch Neighborhood Foundation to honor the memory of Lois. Since 2009, the Award has been supported by the Chatham Arch Neighborhood Association and is presented annually to an individual or individuals who have provided outstanding service to the neighborhood. The award presentation takes place during the neighborhood party in the spring.

Lois Bartz was a unique individual who dedicated many years of service and leadership to the Chatham Arch Neighborhood Association. Her tenure as President was marked by many substantial accomplishments including the establishment of the Chatham Arch Neighborhood Foundation. She spent many hours not only in taking care of Association business, but also in supporting the neighborhood in various ways such as personally welcoming new neighbors and new business on Massachusetts Avenue.

As an educator, energetic leader and civic volunteer, Lois demonstrated and modeled good will, creativity and passion in promoting neighborhood issues.
