

The blockade of Gaza has brought death, destruction, pain and suffering to the people there. The international community must not ignore their cries for help.

— Former US President Jimmy Carter

WEDNESDAY,
JANUARY 20, 2010
6:00 - 8:00 PM

HUNTSVILLE/
MADISON CO.
PUBLIC LIBRARY
915 MONROE ST.
(main branch)

ISRAEL/PALESTINE One Year Later:

First-hand accounts, historical information, and discussion about the ongoing humanitarian crisis

[A year after the end of Israel's military assault on Gaza, what is happening in Israel/Palestine? What do we need to know? How can we help from afar?]

The program includes:

"Do not stand idly by"— Israeli-born, Huntsville-based writer and editor Osie Gabriel Adelfang reads from the upcoming anthology Shifting Sands: Jewish Women Confront the Israeli Occupation

"The Occupation: A History"

Palestinian-American retired professor Dr. Salib fled Palestine with his family in 1948, after Israeli forces shelled his home city of Acre. He has been teaching and speaking to groups about Israel/Palestine for many years and offers a wealth of factual information and analysis.

Thou shalt not stand idly by as your neighbor's blood is shed. Lev. [19:16]

In solidarity with

GAZA FREEDOM
MARCH!

Thou shalt not be a victim, thou shalt not be a perpetrator; and above all, thou shalt not be a bystander—Yehuda Bauer

Event sponsor: North Alabama Committee for Nonviolent Action (NACNVA) Madison, Alabama, U.S.A.
<http://www.napn.org/NACNVA.htm>
Questions: Peter Engstrom, Committee-person (256) 325-7300

In honor of the lives of Edward Said and Rachel Corrie

