Invitation to the Breakfast Meeting on:
“Breaking the stalemate: new approaches for cooperation in the Nile Basin”

Hilton Hotel, Jacaranda Hall, on January 20th, 2014

Dear Mr. Mulugeta Gebrehiwot,

The Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung, Addis Ababa office is pleased to invite you to a political breakfast meeting on security policy in Africa to be held on Monday, January 20th, 2014 from 8:30 AM to 11:00AM at the Hilton Hotel, Jacaranda Conference hall.

The topic of discussion will be “Breaking the stalemate: new approaches for cooperation in the Nile Basin” presented by Tobias von Lossow, Research Assistant to the Director/ Research Division Middle East and Africa, Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik/German Institute for International and Security Affairs.

The aim of this meeting is to provide a forum for a regular and more frequent exchange of Addis Ababa based experts on security policy in the Horn of Africa as well as the wider African continent. The meeting also seeks to generate concrete and practical policy recommendations to national and international institutions.

Please note that the program starts in the morning at 8:30 and ends at 11:00am.

Kindly confirm your participation through Nina@fes.org.et or fesethiopia@yahoo.com or through telephone 0111233245/46.

Yours sincerely,
