

Dear applicants of NPU,

Hoping everything is going fine in your side, I would like to inform you all very important issues that need your urgent reaction: The committee has been trying to clarify the online applications process of Chinese scholarship council website. On top of that, it has been following your application progress with admission office of NPU. Therefore, according to our discussion with the office, we would like to inform you the following information for your fast reactions:

1. Out of 32 expected applicants from Mekelle University the following 11 applicants, whose names are listed below, have submitted their applications successfully and they are already short-listed for further competitions but still they need to upload a supportive document that mentions as the applicants are lecturers (academic staff) of Mekelle University in to the online system by log in again using their user name before June 14/2017 (only two days left).
