

College of Pharmacy

Advanced College Summer Enrichment Program (ACSEP) Tier I

Only 25 students will be selected.
Application will open
January 9, 2017
Program begins
May 22, 2017 & ends
June 23, 2017

This 5wk summer program is for undergrad students interested in careers
in science, technology, engineering, and math

- Participants Will work with Researchers in their labs
- Coursework WILL prepare participants for professional school
- Students Will visit the National Institute of Health (NIH)
- Students Will become acclimated to professional school & their surroundings
- Applicants must be a rising freshman or have no more than 30 credit hours, (college freshman or sophomore)
- Preferred STEM majors (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math).
- Preference afforded to those in the metropolitan D.C. area
- Those interested should have a high aptitude for science, math and technology.

Program Objectives:

- To experience & interact with award-winning professors
- To facilitate entry into the doctor of Pharmacy program
- To get shadowing & internship opportunities
- To get the experience of a challenging curriculum & acclimation to STEM careers
- To continue partnerships with local Community Colleges
- To encourage underrepresented minority students to pursue careers in health professions

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Tawanna Terry
Program Manager
College of Pharmacy, National Workforce Diversity Program
nwdp@howard.edu
(202) 806-4208

Sponsored by

For applications go to: <http://healthsciences.howard.edu/education/colleges/pharmacy/center-excellence/components/summer-enrichment/advanced-college>