Zion Baptist Church will host its

*20th Annual College Process Workshop - An Inside Look;
An Information Session for High School Students of Color and Their Parents*

*Saturday, September 30, 2017
1:30 p.m. sharp – 5:00 p.m.*

*Zion Baptist Church Fellowship Hall
4850 Blagden Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20011*

This is not a traditional college fair, as we are not recruiting for any particular college. Rather, this workshop will provide general resource information to assist you in applying to the colleges of your choice.

Topics include: how to effectively visit colleges; determining if a school is a good fit/match for you; what makes a good college application and essay; the financial aid process; interviewing with college alumni; life at HBCU's, predominantly white institutions, and transitioning between the two; successfully managing the application process; and how to find scholarships.

Speakers include:

*Bryan G. Nance, Regional Recruitment Manager at the Ohio State University and former Admissions Officer at Cornell, MIT, & Johns Hopkins University
Greta Kendrick, Associate Director of Student Financial Services, Georgetown University
Darryl & Leslye Fraser, Former Regional Chairs, MIT Educational Council and A Panel of Recent College Graduates from Various Colleges and Universities*

*Registration information will be available in mid-August at www.ziondc.org
