WHY YOU CANNOT MISS THIS COURSE

Five Intelligences

A ground-breaking discovery, resulting from three decades of collaborative interdisciplinary R&D work, The Five Intelligences is a catalytic developmental modality that reveals five inner generating powers that define the human capability in a similar way that the five senses define, at fundamental level, human consciousness. Because of its great accuracy and powerful experiential dimension the Five Intelligences is arguably the most advanced, effective and easy to learn and apply developmental modality that is currently available to the corporate world.

At high organizational level, the assimilation of the Five Intelligences enables corporate leaders and managers to read moods and balances in different parts or the whole of the company with high degree of accuracy and be able to effectively address the root of those issues.

This highly enjoyable experiential workshop will help you to accelerate your personal growth, show you how to build leadership momentum and come to a deeper self-respect and enhanced self-awareness. Because of its depth of process and experiential nature, you will greatly benefit from working and networking with the other participants and the sharing of collective intelligence. Five Intelligences events are known to build new friendships and open up long-lasting collaborative opportunities.

PRE-COURSE QUESTIONNAIRE

In order to clarify your learning objectives and ensure you get the most out of this training, you will need to complete a Pre-Course Questionnaire stating your knowledge of the subject, level of experience and other relevant issues. TESTIMONIALS

Deutsche Telekom - Five Intelligences Teambuilding Seminar for the leadership team of the R&D division

"David has worked with us on a two-day seminar for increasing the effectiveness of the management team of our R&D lab. The seminar has been a great success. David has achieved this by preparing the seminar very methodically, by conducting it with great flexibility and by adjusting it to the feed-back of the group. I have the greatest respect for his experience, his energy and his integrity. I am looking forward to working with David on the continuation of this engagement."

Peter Morckel, Leader
Deutsche Telekom Laboratories

For a period of five consecutive years we conducted the leadership programme for the top 100 executives of VROM. Occurring twice a year, each programme was a ten-day process (introduction and three blocks of three-days each). We also facilitated several two-day team performance events for some of their mission-critical teams. "Working with David is an impulse for growth"

Annemiek Nijhof, Department Head
Dutch Ministry of Spatial Planning, Housing and Environment

"David has shown to be a very engaging professional who is a very good listener. He is very experienced, has a sharp analysis and knows how to bring the message across, leading to great acceptance of personal feedback and willingness to learn. He has done good work with people managers and our leadership team with innovative and surprising approaches!"

Rob van Aperen, Country Manager
Pfizer

"David conducted the Unilever Road to Leadership program. It has been one of the best courses I have attended so far, leaving me with various very useful frameworks that I still use today. Combining ways to gain deep insight in oneself with useful research based theory is in my experience a powerful way to make step changes in both your personal and professional dealing with the many aspects you encounter. Top notch!"

Edo Oliemans, Sales Manager
Linde Gas, Benelux

"David is very relaxed and charismatic. This is because of his life experience. I have followed a lot of courses where people told me that it starts with you, but this is the first course where I really start believing that its you that can make a difference and develop"

Ard Bossema, Project Leader
Unilever

LEADERSHIP DYNAMICS AND THE FIVE INTELLIGENCES™

How do you handle yourself in the face of a rapidly changing world and shape-shifting marketplace?

A recent Global CEO Study conducted by IBM that has taken two years to conclude interviewed 1500 prominent CEO's from around the globe. This revealing study provides a poignant summation of what these leaders perceive as the three greatest challenges that they are currently facing: Increasing complexity, insecurity and volatility. Within this state of affairs, they also pin-pointed creativity and integrity as the most sought after leadership qualities.

We live at a time where leaders and decision makers must live in a state of readiness to respond to new needs, new realities, new trends and game changing events – from sudden natural disasters to game-changing innovations by competitors. These challenges define the level of personal development that is required from leaders that seek to stay intact, be at the cutting edge and deliver consistent high performance.

Personal development is therefore an absolute prerequisite to anyone who wishes to stay on top of what is happening and while doing so, liberate their innate potential and turn it into cutting edge capabilities. And the desire to develop and progress requires holistic developmental insights and methodologies that are real, simple to learn and apply and above all, work in result oriented, bottom line environments.
