-No Garage

8. Describe the behavior of adults among themselves, and to any other pets or children - respectful, hectic, loud, quiet, commanding.

- The adults, including their teenage daughter were quiet, respectful, well-rounded and cultured.
- When we arrived we were invited to make ourselves at home and wonder the house. Afterwards we gathered around London and chatted.
- To note Tony and his daughter were present We did not meet Rita

9. Describe behavior of children in relation to adults, to other children and to any pets?

- The teenage daughter interacted with London who stayed in her arms for approximately 20 minutes, quiet, content and happy. The interaction overall between the daughter and London, showcased a comfortable, trustworthy relationship. At one point it seemed as though London fell asleep in her arms

10. Any special needs, unusual circumstances or concerns that we should consider?

-No

11. Would you feel comfortable leaving your dog with the applicant?

-Definitely

12. Comments:

- The street that the house was located on, wasn't overly busy however it wasn't overly quiet either. It was indicated that during the times people leave and come home from work it is when it is busiest. We saw numerous dogs on their evening walks in the neighbourhood.
- Their current pet London enjoyed our company while she relaxed and slept on a nearby chair
