Beyond the Book

The Regeneration Healing workshop uses "Healing; the Handbook" as the major text and development tool to help each and every attendee to develop their interest and ability for self-healing. If they wish to develop their skills they can go on to build a teaching and healing practice that can be developed internationally.

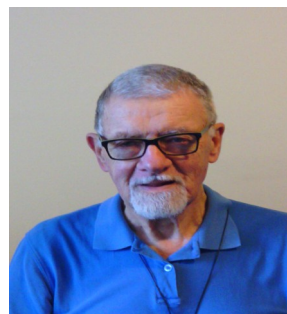

The slogan used most often in workshops is "The only limits are the ones you accept" which is shown very clearly in the practical exercises where each participant will be involved in over 100 healing events.

There will be many testimonials shared of the amazing benefits people have found by using these simple, yet oh so effective processes and building on them to make them their own.

Each attendee will need a copy of "Healing; the Handbook" to use during the workshop. There will be some copies for sale on the day.

The morning deals with the theory and possibilities of Regeneration Healing—the afternoon is dedicated to practical experience so that by the end of the day you really know how to use or innovate healing processes in face-to-face or remote healing situations.

Ken Graydon—author and mentor.

Tamara Lilly—healer and teacher

Testimonials

Regeneration Healing works by helping clients remove the cause of the negative issues, which allows the effects to be released.

We do not 'go to war' against an illness ["what you resist persists"] we simply use our intentions to make another choice.

A lady had nine miscarriages, then had a Regeneration Healing remote healing and ten months later had a healthy baby boy.

A new "Clear Mind process" has worked really well for clients with dementia or Alzheimer's.

The Treat the Treatment process has been effective in eliminating negative side effects of chemotherapy.

The effects are not confined to dealing with illness. There have been stories about attracting abundance, selling houses, getting jobs and rebuilding relationships

The wonderful results happen when we connect with the Creator—it is not us 'doing it' - we are blessed to be there when healing happens.
