IN last two sessions declining trend, Friday turned furious with massacre all out selling across the board. IN fact Thursday negative closing arrested previous seven sessions gaining streak. Markets that gained momentum post eased CPI, WPI data, improved IIP data and easing crude oil prices fadeout in last session. Mega fall of Friday kept week under report a negative week.

Sensex fell 52.66 points to end the day at 36,431.67. Nifty fell 15.60 points to close at 10,951.70.

Domestic stocks dropped sharply on Friday due to heavy selling pressure in index heavy weights. Even mid and small cap witnessed hammering. Sensex, lost 689.60 points to close at 35,742.07. Nifty lost 197.70 points to end the day at 10,754.

During the week bonus issue announcement came in from White Organic (1 for 1) and Container Corp (1 for 4).

THE GLOBAL "CHILL" IN EQUITIES CATCHES UP --- IS IT ? ? ?

After relentless up-move for 7 sessions - from the lows of 10,333 hit on 11th December to 10,985 on 19th December- the global chill is showing its effect on Indian bourses. THIS WAS AGAINST THE TIDE SINCE THE GLOBAL EQUITIES WERE GETTING DECIMATED VIRTUALLY EVERYDAY DURING THIS TIME.

THE BULL BRIGADE WAS STARTING TO SHOUT THE FAMOUS 'DELINKAGE

THEME but only then the CHILL caught up on the last 2 days of the week. The large stock like RELIANCE, with highest weight on NIFTY, gave back 50 % of the gains made 7 days.

NIFTY has closed just below 200 DMA and just a point above 50 WMA. These are crucial levels to watch. A breach can take us down to 10,590 to test the support level. THE SPECTRE OF LAST QUARTER 2007 AND THE MAYHEM IN JANUARY 2008 KEEPS HAUNTING ME.

Fortunately our valuations now are not that high like in last quarter 2007 - never the less the valuations are a cause of concern for many.

We did make a higher high of 10985 on 19th December. So we are some distance away now from lower low and lower high sequence.

I have booked decent amount of profit at the beginning of the week but I did not get a chance to deploy that money since the correction started the next day. EVERYTHING HAPPENS FOR GOOD --- ISNT IT ?

So Looks like the big SANTA CLAUSE RALLY is fizzling into a small pull back. The calendar year 2018 may end into 100/150 points away from last year's close of 10,530.

As I always say, we have to play percentages to make money. Bold bravado or blind consensus following does not help. I HAVE JUST GIVEN YOU SOME FOOD FOR YOUR GREY CELLS. WHAT DO YOU SAY ? ? ?

ECONOMIC REVOLUTION

If politics in Bihar is in continual churn, then the plunger in the barrel is Nitish Kumar, the Chief Minister and leader of the Janata Dal (United). Each time Mr. Kumar ditches an old friend or chooses a new ally, the other parties are forced into a realignment. The latest to shift camps is Upendra Kushwaha's Rashtriya Lok Samta Party. After the BJP and the JD(U) reached an agreement on sharing an equal number of seats for next year's Lok Sabha election, the other allies of the BJP felt squeezed for space in the National Democratic Alliance. With the BJP, which won 22 of the 30 seats it contested in 2014, cutting down its own share of the seats in order to make room for the JD(U), both the RLSP, which won all its three seats in the last election, and the Lok Janshakti Party of Ram Vilas Paswan, which won six of its seven seats, were expected to do the same. But more than the LJP, the RLSP found the situation uncomfortable as Mr. Kushwaha had built his party in opposition to Mr. Kumar over the last five years. The BJP made no serious attempt to retain the RLSP within its fold, in a way glad that the pressure on the process of allocation of the 40 seats in Bihar would ease a bit. If the NDA got crowded after the entry of Mr. Kumar and the JD(U), the alliance led by the Rashtriya Janata Dal remained a mahagathbandhan only in name. Both Mr. Kushwaha and Hindustani Awam Morcha's Jitan Ram Manjhi, a former ally of the BJP, were easily accommodated by the RJD-Congress combine in the mahagathbandhan.

In a way, the exit of Mr. Kushwaha has strengthened the bargaining power of Mr. Paswan and the LJP. The LJP seems unwilling to surrender any of its sitting seats to accommodate the JD(U). Like many of the other parties in Bihar, the LJP has switched sides often, choosing between the Congress and the BJP on the basis of how it reads the political winds. With the RJD steadfastly wooing the LJP, the BJP has been trying hard to keep the party within the NDA. The bilateral agreement with the BJP was a victory of sorts for the JD(U). It was very much the senior partner in the NDA right until 2013, when it broke away from the BJP, protesting against the nomination of Narendra Modi as the prime ministerial candidate. But since then the party appears to have conceded a lot of ground to the BJP. Another change of alliance partners for the JD(U) is unlikely. As things stand, the RJD may not entertain such an option. The JD(U) has been the most important player in Bihar's politics in the last 13 years, but Mr. Kumar's room for political manoeuvre is now severely limited. The plunger might have just done its last churn in the barrel.

Axita Cotton Ltd. (ACL) is producing cotton bales and cotton seeds. The company is producing mainly two varieties of cotton bales namely Shankar-6 and MCU-5/MECH. The production facility is situated at Kadi in Mahesana District of Gujarat state which is close to the rich cotton growing areas of Maharashtra, Saurashtra and other regions of Gujarat. Its products are sold majorly in the state of Gujarat, Rajasthan, Maharashtra and Madhya Pradesh. ACL is also engaged in the business of trading of Kapas, cotton bales and cotton seeds. It is also doing ginning and pressing of Kapas on job work basis.

ISSUE DETAILS/
CAPITAL HISTORY:

To part finance working capital and general corpus fund needs, ACL is coming out with a maiden IPO of 1752000 equity shares of Rs. 10 each at a fixed of Rs. 60 per share to mobilize Rs. 10.51 cr. The issue opens for subscription on 27.12.18 and will close on 02.01.19. Minimum application is to be made for 2000 shares and in multiples thereon, thereafter. Post allotment, shares will be listed on BSE SME. Issue constitutes 26.74% of the post issue paid up capital of the company.

The issue is solely lead managed by Beeline Broking Ltd. while Link Intime India Pvt. Ltd. is the registrar to the issue. Having raised initial

- o ACL primarily deals in cotton bales and seeds. Capacity utilization is very low.
- o Sudden spurt in earnings for last 15 months raises concern.
- o Issue pricing is very aggressive if compared on the basis of financial data.
- o Currently textile segment is not fancied by investors.

equity at par, it raised further equity at a price of Rs. 15 per share in September 2018. Average cost of acquisition of shares by the promoters is Rs. 6.94, Rs. 11.94 and Rs. 12.62 per share. Post issue, ACL's current paid up equity capital of Rs.4.80 cr. will stand enhanced to Rs. 6.55 cr.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE:

On the performance front, for the last four fiscals, ACL has posted turnover/net profits of Rs. 77.05 cr. / Rs. (-0.29) cr. (FY15), Rs. 68.76 cr. / Rs. 0.12 cr. (FY16), Rs. 91.52 cr. / Rs. 0.03 cr. (FY17) and Rs. 123.92 cr. / Rs. 0.82 cr. (FY18). Sudden jump in FY top and bottom lines are bit surprising. For Q1 of FY19 it has earned net profit of Rs. 0.33 cr. on a turnover of Rs. 21.22 cr. Thus higher profit for Q1 is also raising concern.

Company's current debt/equity ratio is very high at 4.75. Capacity utilization is very poor. According to offer documents, boost in revenues are due to transactions with group companies.

For last three fiscals, it has posted an average EPS of Rs. 1.76 and an average RoNW of 14.27%. Issue is priced at a P/BV of 4.28 on the basis of its NAV of Rs. 14.01 as on 30.06.18 and at a P/BV of 2.25 on the basis of post issue NAV of Rs. 26.65.

If we annualize latest earnings and attribute it on fully diluted equity post issue, then asking price is at a P/E of around 30 making it a costly bet.

COMPARE WITH LISTED PEER:

As per offer document, it is considering Pashupati Cotspin and Santaram Spin as its listed peers that are currently trading at a P/Es of around NA and 28 (as on 21.12.2018). However, peers are not strictly comparable on the basis of business model.

MERCHANT
RECORD.

On merchant banker's front, this is the 3rd mandate from its stable in last three fiscals. Last two listings opened at a premium ranging from 4.5% to 10% on the day of listings.

Conclusion / Investment Strategy

Financial performance is average, issue pricing is very aggressive. Currently textile segment is not fancied by investors. Considering all these, there is no harm in giving this issue a miss.

Reviewer recommends Avoid to the issue.

Bearish in metal and power sector for the next week

In recent days we experience lot of fluctuations in global equities, commodities and forex market. From significant increase in oil production especially in United States and Russia which leads to vertical fall of crude oil prices to its almost 14 months lows to heavy profit booking in almost all major world economies including United States, European countries and Asian markets. Also USD-INR showed significant decline during recent days making low below 70. Now a big question which is in front of all of us is what will be the expected twist and turns for the coming week.

As per my research inputs, next week that will start from 24th Dec, 2018 will be going to be in the vacation mood because of christmas and new year. I am bearish in metal and power sector for the next week. Traders may keep their eyes on Vedanta, power grid, adani power for the bearish trend.

Now coming to the commodity market, I am bearish on copper for the next week. Also crude oil is expected to continue on its downward road.

Toyota Kirloskar Motor ties-up with IIT Delhi, conducts ROAD SAFETY Hackathon for school children

Bangalore, 19th December 2018- Taking forward its commitment on SAFETY, Toyota Kirloskar Motor (TKM) organized Hackathon at IIT Delhi to develop effective digital road safety solutions with an aim to bring down the road mishaps and detection of road rules violation.

TKM have continuously been driving road safety programs since 2007 with the launch of various road safety awareness programs and driver behavioral change initiatives.

Advanced technology is advocated as a means of significantly reducing the incidences & severity of road crashes. Despite enhanced road safety gains from better designed vehicles, occupant restraint laws, programs to discourage drink-driving and improvements to the road/traffic environment, road crashes continue to be a major cause of death, injury and damage to property while impacting 3% of GDP growth of the nation. In conjunction with increased effort on the application of these proven techniques, there is also a need to explore other ways to reduce the occurrence and impact of road crashes.

This road safety hackathon forum of Toyota is intended to stimulate discussion and interest in the use of new technologies to increase the range of countermeasures available to traffic authorities and road users, thus unleashing the hidden talents of the youths to effectively contribute to this prior cause. This acts as a motivational drive to associate with the students to inculcate the importance of road safety and engaging them to be the real change agent in addressing the national drive on road safety. This initiative also promotes the right platform & encourages the future generation to gear-up in tackling such priority issues at high levels through application of their learnings and technical knowledge.

Lenovo bags contract to supply laptops to 15 lakh students in Tamil Nadu

PC maker Lenovo has bagged a contract from the Tamil Nadu government for supply of 15 lakh laptops free of cost to school and college students under its 'free laptop scheme', sources said on Friday.

According to sources in the Electronic Corporation of Tamil Nadu (ELCOT), Lenovo has been selected to supply the laptops.

ELCOT is the procurement agency for the government departments to procure IT products and services.

"We are yet to finalise the value of the order. It is about 15 lakh laptops for 2018-19," a senior official of the agency told PTI.

Aimed at students studying in government and government-aided schools and college to acquire better skills, the AIADMK government had announced distribution of free laptops.

In 2011, the then Chief Minister J. Jayalalithaa had announced the scheme which was one of the AIADMK poll promises.

In 2015-16, the government had distributed 5.19 lakh laptops while in 2016-17, it was 5.58 lakh.

Efforts to contact Lenovo India on being chosen for the distribution of laptops drew a blank.

The index slipped significantly from the high of 11,006, gave back over 240 points to end at the lowest point of the week

It was a disappointing close for the benchmark Nifty50 index to close the week down 0.5% at 10,767. The index slipped significantly from the high of 11,006, gave back over 240 points to end at the lowest point of the week.

Majority of this damage came in on last Friday's session when the Nifty fell over 210 points, marked by strong selling across heavyweight sectors. From a short-term perspective, the index is still in an UP trend with positive momentum, but a slip below immediate supports of (10,650-10,700) can lead to a trend reversal. The worry part is with the intermediate trend, which is still down and a failure to quickly retest and take out 11,000 can lead to further selling. Strategically, we are neither strongly bullish nor bearish as we can clearly identify a range for the Nifty within (10,500-11,000). For the Bulls, a sustained close above 11,000 will definitely set in the momentum and raise probability of higher upsides. The Bears have more to do, as supports close to the 10,500 range is very strong. Traders should keep their bets small and short-term in nature, as reversals in either direction has been very sharp. Our view on the overall market is Neutral, and we will look to trade in either direction, but short-term in nature.

A mixed performance from the sectors in last week's trade, as the NIFTYIT faces the maximum heat with a cut of 4.33%. The index is in an intermediate UP trend, but it's the momentum which is slipping. The short-term trend has turned down and a failure to bounce back and trade above 14,500 will lead to further selling. Strategically we suggest long traders to avoid the IT space. One look at charts of largecap IT stocks suggest some degree of selling still left, so it'll be advisable to wait for supports to kick in before one tries to buy.

NSE MEDIA was also amongst the top sectoral loser in last week's trade. Though not a big contributor to the overall market, it was the big fall from ZEEL which lead to this underperformance. The stock has crashed over 40% last week and the momentum is still on the downside - a clear sign to avoid.

NIFTY CPSE & NIFTY PSUBA, that is, the PSU stocks were the biggest beneficiaries in last week's trade. This group of stocks was accompanied by both the NIFTY Mid & Small cap index as the biggest sectoral gainers. We do not see this as an encouraging sign, as we can clearly see selling amongst the blue chips and high-momentum buying in stocks and sectors which do not add a lot of quality or weightage to the over-all market. All these PSU sectors and stocks are essentially in an intermediate down trend with the underlying momentum improving - not the best of candidates to buy, in fact, a failure to extend gains can be looked into as an opportunity to sell. CONCOR (656.60) is one stock we are keeping a close watch on, mainly because this is one odd one which is in an underlying UP trend with positive momentum. A move above (690-700) will lead to multi-month breakout and will open up significant upsides.

Is Indian Market Ready for 2003- 2008 kind run !!!!

Why we expect 2003-2008 like run !!!!

Three reason we think for 2003-08 like run!!

1. GDP to Market capitalization ratio at historic low just like in 2003 . Today India's GDP to Market cap ratio around 65% considering 2019 GDP. In 2003 this was around 55%.

2. Indian stock market not give any return if we consider inflation adjusted return from 2008 high. Just like Indian market do till 1992-

2003.

3. In dollar term Nifty Still below 2008 high so if any investor invest in Dollar in 2008 high he is still waiting for return. We just one month away to complete 11 year of 2008 high.
