

Pizza Ranch

A Slice of Agriculture

April 25-26; John Justin Arena
Will Rogers Memorial Complex

TEXAS A&M
AGRILIFE
EXTENSION

Pizza Ranch is hosted by Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service Tarrant County, The Tarrant County Food & Fiber Committee and local community partners. Pizza Ranch is a free educational learning excursion for all fourth and fifth grade Tarrant County children to raise awareness of agriculture for urban youth.

Youth Attending Pizza Ranch Learn the Following Concepts:

- Agriculture affects and is important to everyone
- Farm animals convert grains and grasses into edible products for human consumption
- Horticulture, the production of fruits and vegetables, is a part of agriculture
- Our food supply is safe and economical
- MyPlate is a useful tool in determining good food choices and amounts to eat
- Red meat and dairy products are important parts of a healthy balanced diet

Time Allotment

The Pizza Ranch Event takes place at the John Justin Arena in the Will Rogers Memorial Complex. Tours begin at 9:40 a.m. on each day and continue every twenty minutes until 12:00 p.m. It takes approximately two hours to complete the tour which includes lunch provided by Southwest Dairy Museum, Domino's - Mark of Excellence, and many other sponsors throughout Tarrant County.

What Is The Cost To Attend Pizza Ranch

There is NO admission cost for your school or students. Schools are responsible for reserving their own transportation through the appropriate school district and any fees applied.

What About Lunch?

Thanks to our wonderful community partners and volunteers, all participating youth, teachers, and parents are provided a free lunch during Pizza Ranch.
