TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing for Apoorva Mahendru, who has been my student at Symbiosis School of Economics. She is a remarkable young woman who enthusiastically participates in academic endeavours. As the mentor for her thesis, I have seen her work diligently on budget analysis to recognize the gender component in them. With a keen eye for issues of development, she is a matured individual who is able to channelize her efforts and finish her work well within the deadline.

As the President of the Student Council, she has managed to balance her academics very efficiently with the immense work that came along with her post.

I recommend Apoorva with utmost confidence. She will definitely prove to be a strong asset to any organization or institution.

Feel free to contact me for any further clarification, if need be.

Sincerely,

Debdulal
