

Tarsh Williams

Tarsh Williams has a post graduate degree in Human Resource Management from Christ College and a graduate in Natural Sciences. He is a member of ISABS and has certifications in NLP, Appreciative Inquiry, Andragogic Experiential Learning, Art of Facilitation, Gestalt OD, Transactional Analysis and NVC. He comes with a work experience of over 20 years having held pivotal management roles in HR Consulting, IT and ITES. Tarsh is the founder-director of TrueNature Learning Consultancy Pvt. Ltd.

Tarsh is certified mountaineer and outdoor educator. He loves to climb, hike and discover the treasures the wilderness has to offer. He has a Diploma in Outdoor Educator Semester at NOLS, USA. In India, he has a certification in mountaineering from ABVIMAS and a Diploma in Himalayan Trip Leading with NOLS, India. He has facilitated a multitude of OBL programs with Pegasus, Wildcraft and iDiscoveri in India, Dragonfly in Hong Kong and Windsor Mountain in the US. In his spare time, he volunteers in Wildlife Conservation with KANS. Tarsh is certified in Wilderness First Aid.

At TrueNature Learning and Development, Tarsh has been a Facilitator delivering powerful Experiential Learning programs and interventions on Organizational Effectiveness, Leadership, Team Development and Personal Growth.

He has positively impacted participants from the Social Work space with Rainbow Homes, Makkala Jagriti, Shanti Niketan, Dream a Dream, Grameen Koota, Samasta, Nirantara, Arghyam, Saahas, Ek Step and World Bank. Objectives were on the lines of Mindful and Deliberate Action, Empathetic Meaningful Communication, Decentralized Decision Making, Bonding and Goal Setting.

Other leading clients include Dell EMC, Volvo, IIM-A, Schneider Electric, Festo, Cognizant, Nokia, Aditya Birla, Essilor, Furlenco, Thoughtworks, Novodisk amongst others.

With TrueNature, he is committed at transforming leaders, organizations and children as they explore inward while on their journey outward.