

Green Fire

ALDO LEOPOLD AND A
LAND ETHIC FOR OUR TIME

With special guest speakers Ray Powell and Hilario Romero

FREE FILM SCREENING!

DATE & TIME:

Monday, November 7, 2011
5:30 pm Refreshments
6 pm Speakers & Film

LOCATION:

Fine Arts Theater, Northern NM College
921 N. Paseo de Oñate, Española, NM

DETAILS:

Aldo Leopold, considered the father of modern wildlife ecology, spent many years of his life in New Mexico and left behind an impressive environmental legacy in our great state. Green Fire shares highlights from his extraordinary career and explores how his call for a land ethic continues to resonate today. New Mexico Land Commissioner Ray Powell and NNMCM History Professor Hilario Romero will introduce the film. Come attend a very unique film event in NNMCM's newly upgraded theater!

Land Ethic Series

SPONSORED BY:

Associated Students of NNMCM
(STUDENT SENATE)

PRODUCED BY:

www.GreenFireMovie.com

Land Ethic Series

Contact ASNNMCM (Student Senate)

Email: asnmmc@nnmc.edu

Facebook: Asnnmc EagleSpirit
Your Voice for Student Power!